July 2024

Jeremiah 29:11 – “For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”

Friends:

I always say, “God is mysteriously at work!”

That’s because we don’t always see the road ahead or know what’s in front of us. We have our plans, calendars and to do lists all organized and then something unexpected gets thrown into the mix. When that happens often my (or our) little corner of the world undergoes a renovation of sorts and while it’s true--as with any renovation/remodel we might have a thumb sketch of what that renovation might entail and our hopes for what the remodel will look like—as remodeling sometimes goes the final product is yet to be determined. That’s because while we have our ideas of what the new kitchen or bathroom might look like, sometimes, we must adapt our plans because the countertops we desired are out of stock, or the flooring isn’t what we expected.

You all know how that goes.

All of this is to say my family and I—including RUMC is going to be undergoing a few changes and the truth is I can’t tell you entirely what the final remodel will look like.

The long and short of it is effective July 1, 2024, I will no longer be appointed to OXFORD UMC. However, I will REMAIN at Remington UMC, and I will be taking on a different secondary appointment at Morocco First UMC. Regarding these changes here is what I do know: Our worship time will be at 9:45 effective July 7th This will mean not only a change in worship time but that I will be worshipping at Remington first and then I will travel onto Morocco.

My prayer is you will choose to gather a little earlier than 9:45 so that we can fellowship together. At this time, I plan to continue to be in the office and available on Wednesdays, and of course am always available by phone 574-298-9480, text, email—revrlcook@aol.com I am so happy to continue as your pastor and look forward to continuing to serve you! I will keep you updated as we move forward.

Many Blessings, Pastor Roberta Cook
